

Morocco eVisa with a Residence Permit or a Schengen, UK or US Visa

How a residence permit or a visa from another country can open the online eVisa to travellers whose passport normally needs an embassy visa.

Updated 20 October 2026

When we ran Morocco's official eligibility check on 15 October 2026, this route led to the eVisa for 101 of the 106 nationalities that would otherwise need an embassy visa.

Two routes: residence or visa

	Route B: by residence	Route C: by visa held
Countries	European Union member states, United States, United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, Japan, Norway, New Zealand, Switzerland, United Arab Emirates	Schengen area, United States, United Kingdom, Ireland, Canada, Australia, Japan, Norway, New Zealand
Condition	Residence card or residence permit valid for at least 180 days on the date of the application.	Multiple-entry, non-electronic visa valid for at least 90 days from the date of the eVisa application.
Passport	Ordinary passport valid for at least 90 days from the date of the eVisa application
Extra document	Clear colour copy of the residence card or permit (both sides). Receipts for applications, renewals or extensions, special certificates, work permits and circulation documents are not accepted.	Clear colour copy of the qualifying visa.

What does not count

- A single-entry visa, or a visa with less than 90 days of validity left when you apply.
- An electronic travel authorisation such as the US ESTA, Canada's eTA or the UK ETA: these are not visas. A visa issued only in electronic form does not match the "non-electronic" wording either.
- A residence permit with less than 180 days left, or a receipt for a pending card, renewal or extension, a special certificate, a work permit or a circulation document.
- A non-ordinary passport: diplomatic, service and special passports and refugee or stateless travel documents cannot be used for the eVisa.

Some countries now record residence status only in digital form. The eVisa terms ask for a copy of both sides of a card and do not say how a digital-only status is handled: run the official eligibility check before you pay if that applies to you.

What the official check showed

Pakistani ordinary passport, living in	Other visa	Result
Pakistan	None	Apply for a visa at an embassy
United Kingdom	None	Apply for an eVisa
Pakistan	Schengen visa	Apply for an eVisa

The same pattern held for 101 nationalities. For Iran, Palestine, Samoa, Syria, Tuvalu, the check still asked for an embassy visa.

Documents to prepare

- ☐ A recent colour photo, 35 × 45 mm, taken within the last 6 months.
- ☐ A colour copy of your passport's identity and validity pages.
- ☐ A colour copy of the residence card (both sides) or of the visa you are applying with.
- ☐ For a business trip, a document that shows the purpose of the trip.

Each file must be a JPG, JPEG or PDF of no more than 1 MB.

At the border

Take the residence card or visa you used for the application with you, together with your passport and eVisa. Officers may also ask for:

- The residence card or visa used for the application (Categories B and C)
- A return ticket
- Proof of funds — an international bank card, or cash equivalent to more than €70 per person per day of stay
- Medical and repatriation insurance covering the stay

Same eVisa, same limits

One entry, a stay of up to 30 days, validity of up to 180 days from issue, and a government fee of 770 MAD (standard, 3 business days) or 1,100 MAD (express, 1 business day).

Based on Morocco's official eVisa terms and the official eligibility check run on 15 October 2026. Entry rules can change at any time; check them shortly before you travel. Apply Morocco eVisa is an independent service and is not affiliated with the Government of Morocco. · applymoroccoevisa.com
